MILLION DOLLAR IMPROVEMENT NOW BEING STARTED AT DONORA

Ground Broken Today For Plant to be Used in Muriatic Acid Manufacture

TO PURCHASE CROMBIE FARM

United States Steel Corporation Has Other Plans in View—Refining Process Contemplated at the New Zinc Plant.

Announcement was made Monday of important extension to the Donora Zinc plant, which will mean the expenditure of an additional million dollars for industrial improvements within the next six months if the plans are carried through as proposed. Today ground was broken for the erection of a plant for the manufacture of muriatic acid to be used by the company for galvanizing iron.

The company has perfected a plan whereby sulphuric acid will be mixed with a low grade of salt in the manufacture of this acid. Just now there is an unusually heavy demand for galvanized iron on account of the war in Europe and in order to produce the necessary elements in the manufacture of this product, this addition to the big plant is to be erected.

It is figured that the company will manufacture sufficient of the muriatic acid for the entire output of the American Steel and Wire company to be used in the manufacture of galvanized iron and that a surplus will remain to be sold in the open market. The output will be 50 tons per day. The new building will be of brick and will be 50 by 202 feet and 50 men will be employed.

Negotiations are also on by the same company for the purchase of the Crombie farm, which if secured will be the site for another big plant, 200 by 500 as a zinc oxide refinery. By a refining process the residue waste from the smelter plant will be utilized in the manufacture of oxide. This plant when erected, as now seems probable, will give employment to approximately 300 men. Altogether these improvements will cost the company nearly $1,000,000.

MEAT MAN SHOT AT MEADOWLANDS DIES; MAN IN JAIL FOR MURDER

Trouble Between Partners at Mining Town Results in County Getting Another Homicide Case.

Arcadio Sanbenico, aged about 40 years a resident of Meadowlands, is dead at Washington as the result of injuries inflicted by his friend and business associate, Mike Reeci known as "Andy," during a quarrel at Meadowlands Sunday afternoon. Sanbenico had been shot twice in the temple and either of the wounds would have been fatal. Reeci is in the county jail charged with murder. He will be held to await the due course of the law in his case. When informed of the death of his partner, Reeci was unconcerned and seemed to take it all as a matter of course.

Coroner James T. Heffran has set Friday morning as the time for holding the inquest.

ICY ROADWAY IS CAUSE OF WRECK

John J. Sonnenlitter and Joseph Weber Have Narrow Escape With Auto

WHEELS SKID INTO BUGGY

An icy roadway and lack of wheel chains on their machine was the cause of a narow escape for John J. Sonnenlighter a Fallowfield avenue meat man and Joseph Weber Monday night on Lincoln avenue extension. Both were injured somewhat when the rear wheels of the machine skidded into the buggy of William Peltzer of the Calvary cemetery grounds, and the car overturned.

The machine was that used by Sonnenlitter in his meat business. With Weber he was returning from a trip into the country about 11:30 o'clock. All the way in Mr. Sonnenlitter had experienced difficulty in keeping the car to the road and when he attempted to pass the buggy of Mr. Peltzer near the plant of the Charleroi decorating company, the rear wheels bumped with force into the rear wheels of the vehicle.

The force of the collision caused the car to swerve and it turned almost directly around then entirely overturned. Sonnenlitter was thrown to the road. Weber was caught partly under the machine.

A taxicab was telephoned for and Sonnenlitter and Weber brought in. Sonnenlitter was injured about his head and face and a small bone broken in his right hand. Weber was hurt about the chest.

The machine was badly wrecked. One wheel was broken from the buggy.

HOMICIDE CASE HELD OVER UNTIL MAY TERM

Criminal Court Adjourned For Present Session When Decision is Reached to Continue Trial of McPherson for Killing Wallace Hilton

Criminal court for the present term was finally adjourned Monday afternoon and all the jurors excused. The McPherson homicide case had been set for Monday and for that reason all the jurors were brought back. There being no other case after the continuance of this one, the jurors were excused.

Samuel E. McPherson, was indicted at the November term of court last year, for the murder of his step-father, Wallace J. Hilton at Monongahela on the night of August 18, 1915. The case was called according to intentions Monday and upon motion of Carl E. Gibson, one of the counsel to the May term. This was done by reason of the serious illness of one of the principal witnesses, Mrs. Sarah Hilton, widow of Wallace J. Hilton and mother of Samuel McPherson the defendant.

The district attorney did not oppose the continuance but asked that the court revoke its former order admitting the defendant to bail and direct that the defendant be remanded to the custody of the sheriff. The district attorney said that in asking this he did so, in view of the fact that the commonwealth would insist on a first degree verdict when the case was called. Investigation said the district attorney, since the shooting had led the commonwealth to believe the facts warrant a conviction of murder in the first degree.

McPherson has been out under $5,000 bond. The court ruled that it would not remand the defendant without giving him a chance to be heard. A rule was issued on McPherson to show cause why he should not be remanded to jail to await trial at the May term.

The shooting of Hilton followed a quarrel between the two men.

The only witnesses to the crime were Mrs. Sarah Hilton, wife of the dead man and mother of the defendant, and Miss Blanche McPherson a sister of the defendant. The testimony of these two women will be of much importance.

Officer Wallace J. Hilton was one of the most efficient in the county being associated closely with County Detective William McCleary, McPherson is a prominent contractor of Monongahela, being associated with his brother Emmet McPherson and Simmons Brothers in the general contracting business at Monongahela. Considerable testimony leading up to the trouble that occurred the day Hilton was killed is looked for.

STRIKE SITUATION AT CRESCENT UNCHANGED

The strike situation at the Crescent mine of the Pittsburg Coal company at California, where 1,300 men quit work because of trouble between a new and the old local union, remains unchanged today. The strikers are as one in their determination to have matters adjusted to their complete satisfaction before resuming work, and this means that certain of the ones most instrumental in the organization of a new union will have to be refused admittance to the mine. The strike may in the long run have a direct effect on the district administration inasmuch as the policy of the old local there, which now is the reigning organization, is directly opposed to the district officials.

COSTLY CHOCOLATES WILL BE COSTLIER

War Causes Stoppage of Importation Of Product Used in Manufacture Of Fine Candy—Consequently Price Goes Higher.

Chocolate candy is going up in price. Some manufacturers have already given local wholesalers and retailers notice to this effect and it is likely that in the near future other manufacturers will do likewise. To the present time there has been almost no advance in the box candy, but there has been a marked advance in the chocolate candy sold in bulk. Two or three brands of the box candy have been advanced from five to 10 cents on the box and it is probable that there will be an even further increase on all lines shortly.

The reason given for this advance is that most of the cocoa used in the manufacture of chocolate candy comes from Holland or her possessions and that this supply is being sent to Germany to be used as a substitute for meat among the German troops the result being a marked decrease in the amount available for use in the manufacture of chocolate candy in the United States, which is the greatest candy consuming nation in the entire world.

FIRE LOSS CUT TO MINIMUM BY PENNSY

Efficient Fire Fighting System and Organized Effort Reduce Risk—Carelessness With Tobacco and Matches One Cause of Fire.

Efficient fire-prevention methods and the promptness of employes in checking many blazes before they could gain a start held the fire loss on the Pennsylvania Railroad system last year down to the very low figure of eight cents on each $100 of property at risk. This is shown in the annual report of the Insurance Department for 1915 which has just been compiled.

The total fire loss for the year was $278,730., which was paid out of the Railroad's own insurance fund. The value of the property exposed to fire hazard, and insured by the fund, is about $350,000,000.

TWO SHOT, ONE FATALLY, IN QUARREL OVER CLUB ELECTION

Trouble Starting in Lodge Rooms at Daisytown Club Has Serious Ending

ONE SENT TO HOSPITAL

George Tocar Receives Serious Wounds—Alleged Assailant is Caught While Attempting to Make Getaway—Bartender Beaten Up.

Trouble over an election in a Hungarian club at Daisytown Monday night culminated in the shooting of George Tocar and Louis Lengal, both of Daisytown at about 2 o'clock this morning. Their alleged assailant Steve Tloida attempted to make his escape after the affair but was captured by Policeman John Channing. Tocar the worst wounded of the two men is in the Mercy hospital at Pittsburg is in a dying condition. Lengal who was wounded in the arm was attended by Dr. J. H. Wilson and sent home.

There seems to be a little misunderstanding as to the events leading up to the shooting. Tocar and Lengal opposed Tloida in the lodge election it is related and a quarrel resulted. Outside the club the argument was resumed it seems and some hard names passed. Tloida, it is stated went home for his gun and returning fired at the two. Then he fled.

The two men were immediately cared for but in the uproar Policeman Channing did not neglect his duty and apprehended the fleeing man before he got a good start.

In other trouble that forming a part of the events leading up to the shooting, the bartender of the club was beaten up somewhat, suffering severe injuries about the head.

All three men are Hungarians about 35 years old. Tocar and Tloida are married and the other single. Tocar's wound which may prove fatal is in the left lung near the heart.

WORK ORDINANCE GIVEN GOOD TEST

Prisoners Making Improvement in Borough Under New Mode of Punishment

CHANGES MADE AT LOCKUP

Already the ordinance giving the burgess right to punish offenders by setting them to work for the borough has proven a good thing and improvement of borough property has been made as a result.

Just after the ordinance had gone into effect last week two were arrested who had no change with which to pay fines. Immediately upon their hearing they were set to work placing a new sewer at the lockup. The work was done neatly and expeditiously by the two prisoners.

A negro was arrested Monday from Gettysburg for drunkenness and for street begging. He will be given a chance to try his mettle at actual labor in serving out a sentence.

CONTROVERSEY OVER HIGH TENSION WIRES CAUSES ARREST OF TWELVE

Injunction Asked by Brownsville Burgess To Prevent West Penn Company From Carrying Out Intention.

When a gang of 12 West Penn Electric company workmen attempted to place high tension wires through the streets of Brownsville Monday they were promptly arrested upon the orders of Burgess J. S. Griffiths. In the afternoon Burgess Griffiths went to Uniontown and presented a petition to the court asking that the company be restrained from placing the wires.

The matter of high tension wires has been the subject of several disputes between the West Penn company and Brownsville council, and the company is understood to have promised not to string the wires in the borough until the affair was settled. A resolution was adopted by Brownsville council two months ago authorizing Burgess Griffiths to present a petition to the court asking for an injunction if the company attempted to string the line.

MEETING AN OBLIGATION.

One of the greatest problems with which the various denominations have had to grapple now seems well on the way to solution. This is the care of the clergymen after they have spent a life time in service and reached the age at which they are no longer able to sustain themselves, says the Uniontown Herald. Plans now maturing to fair to provide the means for meeting this obligation of the church and for adequately caring for those who ministered so long, without adequate pay and without the salary sufficient for savings against the time of age and descrepitude.

For centuries the pay of pastors has been too pitifully small. The laborer has been worthy of his hire, but he did not receive it. There was some excuse when the country was poor, the congregations small and their earnings meager. But now there is full realization of the obligation created in taking a man's whole life and powers, in absorbing his gifts and strength and finally in turning him adrift as a genteel pauper dependant upon charity and spasmodic assistance.

Various denominations have well under way plans for large endowments from the interest of which they will care for their retired soldiers of the cross. Millions have been raised by one or two and other millions are being raised by several of the leading sects. The Methodists have $5,000,000 and plan to raise three times as much. The Unitarians have a large fund while paying their clergy at better rates than many denominations. The Baptists are vigorously prosecuting the campaign for such an endowment. The Presbyterians are prominent among those who are moving to such an end.

The matter is of interest not only among churchmen but commends itself to every one. The service of the clergy is given to all in their communities. The recompense is totally disproportionate to the unselfish sacrifice of these consecrated men. The movement to better the shameful conditions of the past is commendable and it should have the aid of every one interested in the uplift and betterment of the world.

HEALTH AND TAXES

Individual illness places a tax upon the entire community. The prolonged sickness of wage earners is apt to result in poverty for themselves and their families. Indigency and crime itself are often lurking in the trail of disease, says the state health commissioner.

National efficiency must rest upon the sound foundation of health. The reduction of sickness and death from preventable disease should be the first step in our preparation for self-defense. Lord Beaconsfield said, "The public health is the foundation on which reposes the happiness of the people and the power of a country. The care of the public health. is the first duty of a statesman."

In some states in the Union there has been an increasing percentage of dependents as they have become more thickly populated. In addition to the enormous losses from death due to preventable disease when health laws are not enforced, there is a tremendous annual expenditure necessitated by this growing number of those who are unable to bear their the growing army of the unfit.

Provisions and expenditures which will aid in the reduction of those things which sap the vitality of the Nation, will aid in preventing the increased taxation for the support of part in the world's work.

The insane, the feeble-minded, the consumptive and the pauper are a heavy burden upon the tax payer.

A citizen advances the theory that we are not these days showing the patriotism we are supposed to possess; that if we are filled to overflowing with love for our country we ought to get out and tell people about it more. He mentions the lanquor with which we view the approach of birthdays of such noted presidents as Washington and Lincoln, father and saviour of the country, and the apparent lassitude with which we carry out our observance even of more noted holidays. He hits us rather hard, but in some points he is entirely correct. There is no need of us displaying that old fashioned and grossly misunderstood sort of patriotism the reigning feature of which consists of tankink up on fire-water and embellishing the town with a considerable splattering of red paint But really we might with much consistency let our pride of citizenship be known in a quiet sort of way.

In the interests of all concerned and in the interests of the community at large it is earnestly hoped that the present councilmanic controversy be satisfactorily adjusted soon and the clouds which overshadow the borough cleared away. If there are wrongs probably they can be better righted through arbitration than otherwise and the borough still receive the benefit. And this is what all patriotic, thinking citizens desire.

Window card advertisements in the windows of a city store attracted a ruralite from the Monongahela section into a felt goods store a few weeks ago in Pittsburg. He was approached by the clerk with the customary greeting and polite interest in the needs of the visitor.

"You sell felt goods here, do ye, young man?"

"Yessir," was the polite response. "We have everything in that line. What may I show you?"

"Wall, I dunno young man, but I was readin' a paper the other day and got an idea. Do you have a long felt want?"

"Where are you off to in such a hurry?"

"To fetch the doctor for my husband."

"What's up with him?"

"He tells me he has got hepatitis, dyspepsia, rheumatism enteritis, gastritis, appendicitis, nephritis and cerebro-spinal meningitis."

"Where did he get all that?"

"Why, a man induced him to buy a medical dictionary and he's just begun reading it!"—Chicago Herald.

An old lady, walking in a field came across a small boy watching his companions playing football.

"Well, my little fellow," said the old lady kindly, "why aren't you playing football with the other boys?"

"The captain chucked me out for muffin' a goal," replied the small boy sadly.

"Really? Then, if they had treated me like that I wouldn't stand watching them while they played."

"I ain't watching them. I'm waiting till the game's over, an' then I'll smash the captain," replied the small boy savagely.

TANLAC BOUGHT BY HAPPY MAN TO AID FRIEND

James Rainelli of Pittsburg Tells of Remarkable Restoration to Health

"I came to tell you how well I feel and to buy a bottle of Tanlac for a friend of mine," said James Rainelli, of 25 Knox Ave., Pittsburg, Pa., to Mr. Carey, the Tanlac Man at Heidenreich's Drug Store, Pittsburg.

"Tanlac has done me so much good that I want every one to know it. I will always speak a good word for Tanlac, as it not only is making me face the coming year happy and well but I have the happiness to know that I never can be sick a gain because I have Tanlac to keep me well.

"I was suffering from a terrible kind of stomach trouble which made it impossible for me to eat, sleep or do anything else in life that gave me any comfort. I never went any place, except to my work because I felt so bad all the time. My work was a terrible burden to me, because I was so sick all the time that I could hardly keep on my feet.

"I then tried Tanlac. To my surprise, the first few doses began to clear off my stomach and drive the poisons out of my system. My nerves are like iron, my bowels are regular, my stomach is well and I go around feeling good all the time."

Tanlac is now sold in Charleroi exclusively by Pipers Pharmacy where the premier preparation can be had.

apparatus extinguished 441 fires last year before the arrival of public fire companies. Their efforts saved nearly $14,000,000 worth of property from destruction. with a total loss of only $18,362 or 1 1-3 cents on each $100 of value.

Organized fire brigades among the railroad's employes put out 84 of these fires. The value of the property threatened was almost $6,100,000 and the loss actually sustained $7,638. Locomotives equipped with fire fighting apparatus were used in putting out 40 fires, chemical extinguishers checked 50 fires and water casks and fire pails 26. High pressure fire lines built by the railroad were used in six fires.

Altogether there were 1029 fires on the property of the Pennsylvania railroad system last year. Many of these occurred from causes entirely beyond the control of the Railroad and its employes. Spontaneous combustion caused 15 fires, 36 started on adjacent property and 12 were of incendiary origin. Lightning caused 2, boys 2 and tramps 11, while 130 were of unknown origin. Carelessness with tobacco and matches caused 12 fires which destroyed $10,091 worth of property.

DISPATCH PRINTING MURPHY INTERVIEWS

Baseball has had no more interesting club owner than Charles W. Murphy, for 10 years the head of the National League club in Chicago. During his presidency of that club there occurred some of the most famous and most dramatic episodes in the history, not only of the club itself, but of organized baseball.

Mr. Murphy now considers himself free to tell of some of these events — to tell of them from the magnate's point of view and what he believes to be the right and proper viewpoint.

He will tell his side of the much discussed severance of relations between the Chicago club management and Frank L. Chance, the "Peerless Leader." Mr. Murphy will tell how he induced Charles P. Taft to lend him the money to buy the Cubs; of the unsuccessful attempt Ban B. Johnson made to buy into the Chicago club; how a member of the National Commission attempted to disrupt the great Cub machine by luring away "Johnny" Kling on the promise of setting him up in the billiard business; the detailed story of the resignation of "Johnny" Evers as Chance's successor as manager of the Cubs; why "Three-Finger" Brown was let go by the Cubs management; hitherto untold facts in reference to the election of John K. Tener as president of the National League while Mr. Murphy was absent in Europe, etc., etc. And the author "takes the lid off" in every article.

These articles are now appearing in The Pittsburg Dispatch. No baseball fan should miss this [illegible] Sunday Dispatch from your newsdeal-ings of baseballdom. Order The

PATSY BRANNIGAN TO APPEAR AT NEXT SHOW

Charleroi Boxing Club Lists All-Star Card for Next Saturday's Show at The Charleroi Skating Rink—Good Preliminaries Booked.

Two of the classiest fighters ever matched in this section have been secured for the regular Saturday night boxing show that the Charleroi Boxing club will give this week at the Charleroi skating rink. These are Patsy Brannigan the cleverest bantam performer ever turned out in Pittsburg and Eddie Wimler a chunky coal miner boxer from Fair Haven. The show Saturday will be an all-star card that promises to attract a crowd equal to that recently of the Johnny Ray-Dick DeSanders mill if not larger. The winner of the match is to be matched with Johnny Ray for a following show.

Wimler has appeared at the rink on different occasions but Brannigan is not well known to local fans, save by reputation, which is great. One of the best fights and one of the prettiest that it has been the pleasure of Monongahela valley fans to witness this season is anticipated.

In addition to the Brannigan-Wimler card Manager James Buchanan has matched other star numbers. In the semi-windup Bull Miller of Monessen is to try conclusions with Battling Sherbine of McKeesport. Miller recently appeared in a main event with Jim Perry a Pittsburg lad giving him a hard run. Sherbine made a hit here in a semi-final of the same show opposing a Steubenville lad.

Joe Larue of Charleroi, who lately has gained considerable fame for his work is listed for an argument with Dad Copsic of Donora and there is considerable rivalry so that a fast go is expected. In the opener Young Kutz of Charleroi is to meet Kid Hilterbrand of Elizabeth.

TIMELY HINTS GIVEN FOR FOUNDRY WORKERS

Commissioner Jackson of Department Of Labor and Industry Tells What To Avoid and What to Use to Prevent Accident.

Hazards in foundries are pointed out by Commissioner John Price Jackson of the Department of Labor and Industry in a pamphlet issued today on "Timely Hints for Foundrymen."

"Keep molten metal from spattering into eyes by wearing goggles and by making sure that all ladles are dry before being used" advises Commissioner Jackson.

"Wear Congress shoes and keep them in good repair; laced or buttoned shoes cannot be taken off quickly enough in case of spills. Leggings that can be rapidly removed and that have neither wrinkles nor projecting fasteners to catch hot metal have saved many workmen from severe leg burns.

"Hard, sharp mineral dust from cleaning castings scratches the delicate lining of the lungs, makes you cough, lowers your vitality and makes you more susceptible to consumption. See that devices for removing the dust in connection with dry tumbling mills, sand blasting and all grinding and polishing machinery are in proper working order. In sand blasting have your helmet well fitting and keep the sponge in your respirator damp.

"Single attacks of "shakes' may do no more than disturb a night's rest or keep you from work for a few hours. Repeated attacks weaken your digestive system and lessen your strength. Avoid them by not breathing the fumes of the molten brass or other zinc compounds. See that the casting room is well ventilated, especially on damp cold days.

"Lifting heavy material often causes severe strains or ruptures. If you wish to move large castings or other heavy articles obtain sufficient help or use proper hoisting apparatus.

"Use hand leathers or leather gloves in handling scrap and hot or rough castings. A small scratch or burn is often the beginning of blood poisoning which may mean the loss of a hand or arm.

"See that all tools are properly dressed. Never use 'Mushroomed' chisels or hammers. A flying chip from tools in bad condition may cause the loss of your neighbor's eye or your own."

How to Fight Tuberculosis

In a paper read last year before the Bexar County Medical Society and published in part in the Louisville "Medical Progress," Dr. J. W. Carhart, of San Antonio, Texas, a physician who has devoted much time to the study of tuberculosis, said: "Since lime salts constitute three-fourths of all the mineral substances of the human body, they must be supplied in the foods or supplemented in mineral preparations, or mineral starvation ensues with tuberculosis unchecked. The widespread and unchecked spread of tuberculosis and other preventable diseases is due largely to the denatured (lime lacking) conditions of multitudes throughout the civilized world."

Eckman's Alterative has effected remarkable results in numerous cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and allied chronic affections of the throat and bronchial passages. In many instances such conditions, apparently, have yielded completely to it.
